While staying at New Gokula:

Please do not enter the paddocks without getting permission from a staff member as there are risks involved interacting with our animals and sometimes there may be live electric fences.

New Gokula farm is a spiritual haven with Krishna at the centre so we ask all visitors to please respect the sanctity of our space by observing the following rules:

1. No consumption of intoxicants including alcohol, cigarettes and recreational drugs.
2. No gambling activities,
3. No eating of any kind of meat, fish, eggs, mushrooms, onions or garlic,
2. Dress modestly
3. Respect our animals, fish and birds by NOT feeding them without prior permission. Cows can be fed over paddock fences as long as they are not barb wire. They like carrots, apples, bananas and orange best. Safest if cut in half to avoid choking.
4. Remember to shut any gates you open while on the farm so our animals don't wander in and destroy our gardens.
5. No picking fruits, flowers and vegetables. We offer them all to Krishna first and after share them with you.

6. Children must be supervised by an adult at all times.
7. We are dependent on rain for our water supply so please conserve water.
8. The pure vegetarian food we serve is blessed and called prasadam. Please respect this and take only what you can eat to avoid wastage.
9. During meal times, please wait to be served if there are volunteers serving. If not please wash your hands and serve yourself. If you want seconds, once again, we ask you to wash your hands first.
10. We serve breakfast at 9am, lunch at 1pm to 1:30pm and dinner at 7:30pm. If you want to eat outside these times please bring your own snacks.
11. Please limit any noise after 9pm as most farm residents go to bed early as they start their day at 4,30am.
12. New Gokula accepts no responsibility for loss or damage of your personal property.
13. Personal belongings left behind will only be kept for one week unless you have made another arrangement with us.
14. Guests are requested to bring their own towels and shampoo.

There are many opportunities for a variety of volunteer activities (karma yoga). If you wish to participate please speak to one of our staff members.

You are most welcome to join in with any of our temple programmes including kirtans and wisdom classes.
